

WORLD SPINE 8 - Abstract Submission

Abstract submissions will be open from August 15, 2017 00:00 to November 15, 2017 11:59 pm

* Local Time - UTC/GMT

Only online submissions through the congress website will be accepted. Each author will have a password which will allow to edit the abstract and inscription. Please save the password given. A new one can be requested from the log-in page.

You can edit your abstract until November 15, 2017 using the password given.

It's mandatory to give an email when submitting an abstract. All information regarding the abstract, such as: acceptance/rejection, date and session of presentation, and guidelines for presentation will be sent to that email.

The following topic categories are available:

Adult deformity	Growing Spine
Arthroplasty	Infections
Basic science and biomechanics	Medical economics
Complications	Minimally invasive spine surgery
Degenerative - cervical	New technologies
Degenerative - thoracolumbar	Nonoperative treatment
Diagnostics and Imaging	Trauma
Epidemiology	Tumours

Notification of acceptance

The abstract submitter will be notified of the acceptance or rejection of the abstract on December 20, 2017. The abstract submitter will receive all the information regarding the abstract. The abstract submitter is responsible for informing all other co-authors of the status of the abstract.

Rules for Abstract Submission

- The abstract should not exceed 400 words;
- Figures and tables are not permitted;
- Abstracts can only be submitted in English;
- Submitted abstracts should be an original work and do not infringe copyrights, or intellectual properties;
- Only online submissions through the congress website will be accepted. Click Here.;
- Abstracts will be published as submitted by the submitter author. It is the author's responsibility to submit a correct abstract. Any errors in spelling, grammar or scientific fact in the abstract will be reproduced as typed by the author. Authors' list will be published exactly as submitted;
- Please ensure that all authors, particularly, the 1st author and presenting author are identified correctly;
- The following subdivisions of your abstract are MANDATORY: Title, Introduction, Purpose, Methods, Results and Conclusions;
- The abstract must not contain identification of the authors or institutions in the text;
- The registration of the presenting author must be concluded until January 15, 2018. After that date the abstracts will be withdrawn from the scientific program;
- Oral presentations will have 6 minutes allotted time for presentation (plus 2 minutes for discussion)
- Posters will be expose electronically. E-posters will not be discussed.